“The majority of children’s ministry leaders worldwide have a heart to serve, but not the theological tools to connect moral lessons to the story of redemption.”

— Global Children’s Forum 2023 Report

“Children are often taught ‘how to behave like Christians’ before they ever learn ‘how to become one.’”

Back Story

Samir

Baby

Lina

In a bustling Middle Eastern neighborhood, life moves between the clang of the local kickboxing gym and the quiet struggles inside a modest home. Teenager Samir trains under his coach, Rami pushing himself to succeed, while his littler sister Lina tends to their ailing grandmother. Facing existential questions of worth and of mortality, both are caught in a race against time.

Grandma

Rami

As Samir wrestles with frustrations in the ring and Lina faces the looming shadow of loss, one fragment of an ancient map in the tapestry shop sweeps them into a journey that changes everything. Could it be that people really were meant to have eternal life and will they unravel the mystery of the map?

Rami's fight to win and Lina's struggle for hope spark a higher quest as they find themselves caught up in a Story far bigger than any they could imagine.
